NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 30.—Hon. Wm. H. Barnum, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, died at Lime Rock at 9:45 this morning.

Homer Thaxter and Will Davis, of the APPEAL office, rode on bicycles to Reno on Tuesday, starting at 5:30 and reaching Reno at 11 o'clock on empty stomachs. They stopped forty minutes on the way.

Robert Blakseley of Virginia City, took his wife to the Inauguration ball on Tuesday night and because his wife refused to dance a particular set with him, blew his brains out.

Croup can always be prevented by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. It is pleasant and safe to take and perfectly reliable. Price, 50 cents per bottle. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

The pot-hunters and illegal fishermen from Virginia who camp out at Washoe Lake and catch fish and shoot ducks in the night. Here is a fine chance for the Fish Commissioner to get his fins in. There should be a deputy there all the while to enforce the law.

A white man was recently lynched in South Carolina for ravishing a negro girl. The colored people swung the man up at once. The negroes have been tried and condemned to death for murder. When white people hang the blacks for the same offense the papers down there head the item "Served 'em right."

EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—Please announce in the columns of your valuable paper that we are sole agents for St. Patrick's Pills, the most perfect cathartic and liver pills in the market. They not only physic, but cleanse the whole system; purify the blood and regulate the liver and bowels; they are vigorous but gentle in their action and can always be depended upon. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Not a fit, but an expression of delight. "About a week ago," says a Los Angeles, Cal., druggist, "a Chinaman came in with a lame shoulder. I sold him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and guaranteed that it would cure him. He came in again last night, and as soon as he got inside the door, began to swing his arms over his head like an Indian club swinger. I thought the blamed fool had a fit, but he finally stopped long enough to say: 'Medicine velly fine, velly fine; ally same make me feel plenty good.'" Chamberlain's Pain Balm is without an equal for sprains, rheumatism, aches, pains or lame back. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

INAUGURATION DAY.

How it Was Observed in Carson.

Thanks to the efforts of Captain George Hark and other patriotic citizens, an impromptu celebration in honor of the centennial anniversary of Washington's inauguration as President of the United States was had in Carson. The city was decorated in holiday attire from one end to the other, and at an early hour in the morning a salute of 42 guns was fired.

At 9 o'clock there was an interesting service at St. Peter's Church, it being a fac simile of the services had at Washington's inauguration. There was appropriate music and an eloquent sermon by the Rector, Rev. Mr. Sanford.

It was a perfect day, and the streets were crowded with gayly dressed men, women and children. At four o'clock the Carson Guard, under the command of Captain Hark, and preceded by the Carson Band, marched through the principal streets. The company made a handsome appearance, and went through the evolutions and marching in excellent style. The boys were cheered all along the line of march, and there was a good, patriotic feeling manifest on all sides.

As a fitting wind-up to the day's festivities there was a dance given in the evening by the Carson Guard at Armory Hall. The ball-room was literally alive with merry-makers, in fact in order to accommodate the dancers the dining room had to be used by the trippers of the moxy. There must have been fully 125 couple participating, and a hand-somer gathering is seldom seen in Nevada. The music was the best ever given by a Carson orchestra. —Tribune.

A GRIZZLEY AT THE LAKE.—John Hawley and Joe Briggs came down from the Lake yesterday and insist that they saw a full grown grizzly in the woods back of the Hot Springs. He was going northward and they took good care to get out of his way. A sheep man who camped near there the night before lost eight or ten head of sheep and four were found mangled and partly eaten, evidently the work of the grizzly. The reports of hunters who go up that way will be anxiously looked for.

A BOLD THIEF.—On Tuesday morning George S. Terran stole a hand car at Gold Hill and started down the V. & T. A dispatch was sent to train dispatcher Ardery, who sent a locomotive and two officers up to meet him. The man was nabbed at Mound House and brought to this city. He had a trunk and carpet sack on board, and was preparing to leave the State.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Mr. S. A. Miller and wife are spending a few days in Carson. Mr. Miller is and old Nevada man, and used to keep the United States hotel in Virginia City, and afterwards ran the Fresno Republican. He made his pile in the land boom, and is living comfortably on his income.

DIED ON THE WAY.—Last Sunday, Fish Commissioner Mills shipped several thousand young trout from Carson to different points in Eastern Nevada. Monday C. H. Sproule received a dispatch that they had all died at Reno, and that a new lot would be shipped Tuesday, arriving in Elko Wednesday evening. Everything was in readiness here to receive them, but when the express messenger opened the car door no fish were set out. They had all died before reaching Winnemucca. It is hard work to transport these young fish any distance and a good deal of care has to be taken to keep any of them alive. Two years ago the editor of the Free Press brought up 150,000 young trout from Carson and did not lose a hundred on the road. If the Fish Commissioner has any left, another attempt will be made to land some of them in Elko during the next two weeks.—Elko Free Press.

THE CELEBRATION.—The country at all points of the compass seems to have had a good time on Tuesday. New York was the pivotal city in this affair. The President approached New York over very nearly the same route Washington took a hundred years ago, and the reception at the landing was as near as could be a copy of the reception accorded the first President. The naval pageant appears to have come up to the expectations of the public, and to have been an imposing affair.

The ball and banquet was the grandest in the history of the United States. Depew's speech was brilliant and sincere and Whittier's poem full of patriotism and fine metaphor. The second century of the Republic begins under the best auspices. Harrah for Uncle Sam!

THE NEXT ATTRACTION.—The next attraction at Carson Opera House will be Miss Mattie Vickers in "Jacquine; or Paste and Diamonds." The Cleveland Herald says of her: "Miss Mattie Vickers, as the heroine Jacquine, is a splendid little actress, and has a beautiful, expressive face, sings and dances to everybody's liking, and possesses the material for becoming one of the best soubrettes on the American stage."

Secure seats early.

At the Bay City.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—The day was generally observed here. Business was suspended and special services were held in the churches. The monster parade was a great success.

It is estimated that there were ten thousand people in line. It took two hours to pass a given point. Thousands of people witnessed the procession, and the sailors shipwrecked at Samoa were greeted warmly.
